

deep-sea ed disease! And when some bishop of Canterbury, out of his large income, subscribes his $300; or majesty, out of her daily allowance $300 from the British nation, subscribes her pitance, the amount is chronicled as evidence of their fraternity of the destitute poor! Out upon such mockery of relief! And the sooner the destitute millions of great Britain feel their strength the better.—Boat Post.

EXHUMATION OF COM. PORTER'S REMAINS.—The European papers give an account of the exhumation of Commodore Porter's remains, now on their way to Philadelphia.

"The U. S. brig, Truxton, having arrived at Constantinople, the exhumation of the remains of the late Commodore Porter (a brave valiant services to his country will ever live in our memory,) took place on the 14th of October, in presence of all the foreign representatives of the courts of Europe at the Sublime Porte, the officers of the steamers and ships of war in port, and the Americans resident in Constantinople. The cap and sword of deceased, over which the American flag was thrown, being placed on the coffin, the procession moved slowly to the beach. The Internuncio of Austria, the Ministers of Spain and Sardinia, and the Belgium, Swedish and Neapolitan Charges d' Affaires, held the pall. The Truxton and steamers carried their flags half mast high, the former firing minute guns, and on her return to Zophane she fired seventeen guns as a salute, which were returned by H. B. M. steamer Devastation, and without coming to an anchor, she proceeded on her homeward voyage. It is not a little singular that the deceased Commodore served as a midshipman on board the brig which is now conducting his remains to his native country.

THE VICE PRESIDENCY.—The bare suggestion of Mr. Talmadge's name in connection with the Vice Presidency, seems to have alarmed the Van Buren men. They remember the shameful discomfiture of their chief in his own State in 1839 and 1840, and they dread to see that old Conservative phalanx again in the field, under the lead of Nathaniel P. Talmadge. To them it is the hand writing on the wall; the fearful omen of disgrace and defeat.

The Free Press says that we do not speak in this case from the book, nor from Washington.

It is quite right for once. Whig nominations come from the rank and file, and not from Congressional caucuses, or the secret conclaves of a few leaders. Henry Clay has been brought forward by the people themselves. Our candidate for the Vice Presidency, whoever he may be, will be made in the same way. As for Mr. Talmadge whose name we have ventured to mention without asking leave due and other funds existing before Mr. Van Buren's accession, and by the issue of Treasury Notes. When Mr. Van Buren retired, all available resources had been eaten up, and a public debt of some $4,000,000 created by the issue of outstanding Treasury Notes. Since that time, this debt has been swelled by the annual deficit of some six millions and a quarter, with the accruing interest, until it now amounts to some Twenty five Millions of Dollars. (Mr. Spencer does not state the precise sum, nor devote a chapter to the growth and present state of this debt, as he ought clearly to have done.) The practical question presented however, is this; Ought we, in a time of profound peace and of general though moderate prosperity to allow this debt to go on increasing? We say emphatically No! Let us commence its payment forthwith. But for the wretched, knavish demagogue clamor of Loco Focoism against "taking the poor man's Tea and Coffee" in 1842, we should have at least essentially checked its growth in 1842; now the work must be postponed no longer.

2. Of Revenue. The Receipts of the Fiscal year 1842 fell a little short of Twenty millions; the Expenditures, including Interest on the Public Debt, were about twenty five millions, a clear deficit of five millions. For the current year, the income of the first quarter, (ending Sept. 30th last) was over six millions and a half; over six million from Customs alone. For the remaining three quarters of the year, the receipts are estimated at a little less than Thirteen millions; only eleven millions and a quarter from customs. [We think this must be too low, that the receipts of the three quarters ending next July cannot fall below double those of the one quarter ending with last September.] The total expenditures of the current year are estimated at about twenty five millions and a half, showing a deficit of nearly six millions [which we believe will be reduced by excess of receipts from Customs over the Secretary's estimate to between four and five millions, still a very heavy sum.] For the year commencing July 1st, 1844, the Secretary estimates the Receipts from customs at Twenty millions, from lands at two millions and a quarter, and other sources at Fifty thousand dollars; total twenty two millions three hundred thousand dollars; against which the expenditures will be over twenty five millions and three quarters, besides one million for interest on the public debt, making a total of almost twenty seven millions, and showing a deficit of over four millions and a half.

Here is a rather dreary prospect, let it be met manfully. Retrenchment is the first resource, and we trust it will be pushed to the utmost. We have larger faith in it than the Secretary has, though he makes some judicious suggestions. I be-

PHRENOLOGY.

Mr. Talbot, Phrenologist, has just concluded a course of Lectures in this place upon that subject, which have elicited unusual interest among our citizens: altho the weather has been very unfavorable and roads bad, the Lectures were highly interesting and the examinations (public,) have been generally quite satisfactory; at the close of his Lecture last evening, the following Resolutions offered by Doct. R. E. Morse, were unanimously adopted.

Resolved, That the series of Lectures given by Mr. Talbot have been interesting and satisfactory, and such as have tended to establish the truths of Phrenology.

Resolved, That the thanks of the audience is hereby respectfully tendered to Mr. Talbot, for the agreeable manner in which he has delivered his Lectures.

LADIES FAIR.

The Ladies of Ypsilanti, hereby give notice that they will offer a Fair for the sale of Fancy articles, Toys and Refreshments, this evening, in the rooms of the second story of Mr. Larzelere's Brick Building—Where they will be happy to receive the calls of any who will favor them with a visit.

Mr. Talbot has kindly offered to give examinations on practical Phrenology for the benefit of the Fair.
